Excerpt from A Voice From the Pews: Or a Tabernacle Supplement As an example under the subjective theory, the writer would quote a paragraph or two from a book of Prayers, published at Boston, in 1862, by Walker, Wise Co. No matter who was the author; the matter is the prayer: - Father, we know thou wilt always remember us, nor askest thou the persuasive music of our morning hymn, nor our prayers poor utterance to stir thy loving-kindness toward us; for thou carest for us when sleep has sealed our senses up and we heed thee no more; yea, when enveloped in the smoke of human ignorance or of folly, thine eye is still upon us, thou understandest our needs, and doest for us more and better than we are able to ask or even to think. But in our feebleness and our darkness, we love to flee unto thee, who art the light of all our being, the strength of all that is strong, the wisdom of what is wise, and the foundation of all things that are; and while we lift up our prayer of aspiration unto thee and muse on thy presence with us, and the various events of our life, the fire of devotion must needs flame in our hearts, and gratitude dwell on our tongue. Chiefliest of all do we bless thee for that noble son of thine, born of a peasant mother and a peasant sire, who in days of great darkness went before men, his life a pillar of fire leading them unto marvellous light and peace and beauty. We thank thee for his words, so lustrous with truth,...
