Mondale: Before the Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress, One Hundred Third Congress, First Session July 1, 1993 The committee met, pursuant to notice, at 10 a.m. in room 216, Hart Senate Office Building, Hon. David L. Boren (co-chairman of the committee) presiding. Opening Statement of Hon. David L. Boren, A U.S. Senator From Oklahoma Chairman Boren. I will call the meeting to order. We have conducted 35 days of hearings, over 200 witnesses who have offered in total more than 100 hours of testimony. From the ethics process, reform of the ethics process, to scheduling concerns, to a vast array of reform proposals, we have considered more than 500 different proposals to improve the operation and the functioning of the Congress and improve our deliberations. Over the next few weeks the members of the Joint Committee will participate in extensive consultations and briefings about the many proposals that we ve heard. Our goal is to begin the markup process sometime after the August recess. It is fitting that...
