Not illustrated. 1863 edition. Excerpt: . come that the crook should be made even; for if it were come, though they stand now like an impregnable fort, they would give way like a sandy bank under one s feet; they should bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet. Meanwhile, that state of the matter is so far from justifying one s not eyeing the hand of God in the crook in the lot, that it makes a piece of trial in which his hand very eminently appears, namely, that men should be signally injurious and burdensome to others, yet by no means susceptible of conviction. This was the trial of the church from her adversaries. All that found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We offend not: because they have sinned against the Lord, the habitation...
