Excerpt from The Great Encyclic Epistle: Divided Into Two Parts: The First of Which Was Occasioned by the Death of President Abraham Lincoln, and the Second by the Capture of Jefferson Davis I studied and acted according to my determination, and was ordained Priest, A. D. 1819. I have united my experience as Priest with zealous continuation of my investigations in the branches of Divinity, and I was laboring particularly to penetrate, as deep as possible, into the mysteries of the Bible; and my Heavenly director gave manifold Signs, that my labour would at length bring good fruit for the welfare of Nations. After having been six years Priest of my native Diocese, Laibach, in Illyria, my Master directed that for the continuation of my theological investigations I should unite with the Monks of the Benedictine Order, in the Monastery of St. Paul in Carinthia, - and after two years of investigation in the Jewish, Heathen and Christian antiquities, in the library of that Monastery, I became public Imperial Royal Professor of Biblical studies of the New...
