

The Naked Jaybird: An Intrigue That Would Destroy America

By MR Stephen P Byers

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This story, the second edition of a tale first self-published in 1999, incorporates corrections and minor amendments, but it remains the same story, delivering the same message thirteen years later. Critic s appreciations and author s comments relating to this work follow. From the first page to the last, this captivating book races, twisting and turning to capture the attention of even the most aloof reader. The Naked Jaybird is an exciting read. Patiently and methodically, Byers spares no detail in piecing together a complex multi-level plot into a plausible story of international conspiracy, espionage, and terrorism. The scale of this endeavor is enormous, but he manages it successfully. As in Bent Coin, another Byers novel, powerful characters expose underlying themes of social stratification, greed, and professional growth. Byers presents and develops credible characters whose motivation and perspective are well understood by the reader. Comments from the Author: The story germinated in July of 1997 after reading an article in McLean s, Canada s Weekly Newsmagazine, about the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, bearing the subtitle Giving up on...
