Families with as many as eight and nine children lived in houses less than 1,000 square feet in size! But then came the 1980s. Our country had forgotten the struggles of war, families were earning two incomes thanks to the women s movement and greed for bigger and better became the norm. Even hair was big! Houses were not immune from America s fixation on big, either. In spite of record-high interest rates, houses went from an average...
